

OPEN FRAME

ENGLISH DAILY

We Reveal the Truth

RANGAREDDY Vol:01 Issue:224 Monday,05-10-2026 Editor:Katta Sathyanarayana Price:1/- Pages:4

BC LEADER will be Telangana CM, asserts Mahesh Goud Calls for nationwide caste census

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): TPCC president and MLC B Mahesh Kumar Goud reiterated on Sunday that a BC leader would become the Chief Minister of Telangana, expressing confidence that the Congress leadership would ensure greater political representation for Backward Classes. Addressing a TPCC OBC public meeting at Shamshabad, Goud said Rahul Gandhi had given BC communities the courage to raise their voice for their rights. “Empowered by the confidence instilled by Rahul Gandhi and Kharge, I assert that a BC leader will become the Chief Minister of Telangana,” he said. Goud said Rahul Gandhi's message of “Jitni abadi utna haq” (rights and entitlements proportional to a group's share of the population), highlighted during the Bharat Jodo Yatra, had inspired the Congress to fight for the rightful share of BCs. He said the party would secure the share due to BC communities and, if necessary, fight to obtain it. He said the party would work to increase BC representation in the Cabinet, Legislative Council and various corporations. Goud said the caste survey in Telangana was conducted with the cooperation of Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy, Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka and other ministers, resulting in the preparation of the final document. Targeting the BJP, Goud alleged that its MPs and MLAs lacked the courage to approach Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah and speak up for the rights of BCs. He accused the Centre of betraying the BC community and said Telangana's demand for social justice should serve as an eye-opener for the Union government. Goud said Telangana could have emerged as a model for the country if the caste survey had been fully implemented. He alleged that while the SC and ST columns were

3 women scribes allege sexual harassment by Delhi Police

New Delhi, Oct04 (Open Frame): Three women journalists have alleged sexual harassment by police personnel during a protest against Chief Election commissioner Gyanesh Kumar in Jantar Mantar on October 3, prompting the Delhi Police to transfer their complaints to the Crime Branch for an impartial enquiry, an officer said on Sunday. One of the women journalists said that an ACP sexually assaulted her. The officer said the New Delhi district police received complaints following the alleged incidents during the protest, when police personnel were deployed to maintain law and order. The district police have transferred the complaints to the Crime Branch for an impartial enquiry, the officer said

Kerala orders vigilance probe against CEC in 2006 case

Thiruvananthapuram: Kerala Home Minister Ramesh Chennithala has ordered an investigation by the Vigilance and Anti-Corruption Bureau (VACB) against Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Gyanesh Kumar over alleged irregularities during his tenure as the southern state's Public Works Department (PWD) secretary in 2006. The matter is linked to the alleged death by suicide of Malaysian civil engineer Lee See Been, who was with the PATI-BEL consortium tasked with upgrading a road under the Keralam State Transport Project (KSTP). The engineer's “suicide note” had reportedly named Gyanesh Kumar, who was serving as the state PWD secretary, at the time, news agency ANI reported, adding the fresh probe was initiated following allegations that the original preliminary investigation conducted in 2006 was derailed due to external pressure. Taking note of the matter, the Home Department has sought all files pertaining to the 2006 VACB preliminary inquiry. Chennithala has directed the vigilance director to conduct a thorough inquiry into the allegations of external influence and take action based on the findings, according to the state Home Minister's Office. The home minister said the allegation of external influence in the case was serious and warranted a detailed investigation.

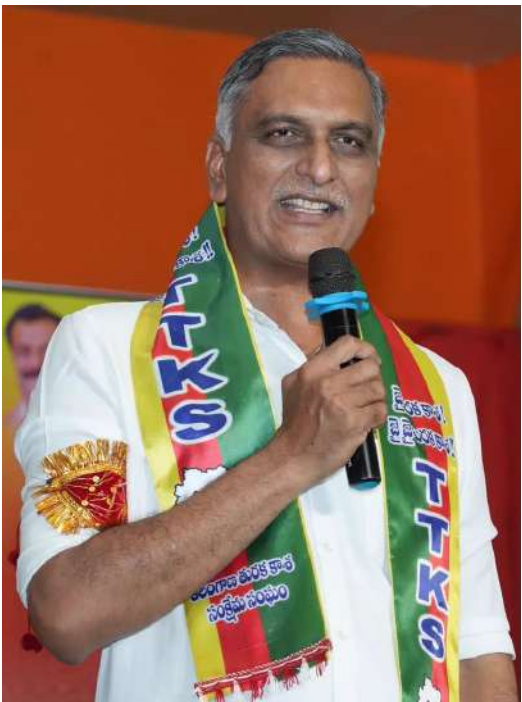

Reform electoral system, not just replace CEC: Kavitha

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): Dismissing the ongoing agitation by Congress and INDI Alliance demanding the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar, TRS leader Kalvakuntla Kavitha on Sunday stated that a resignation would achieve nothing, emphasizing that the electoral system itself requires fundamental reform. Addressing a press conference in Hyderabad, Kavitha reiterated her demand for the Union government to revert to paper ballots, asserting that returning to the traditional voting mechanism represents the only way to ensure clean, transparent, and fair elections across the country. Drawing a parallel, Kavitha referenced Union Minister Dharmendra Pradhan's resignation during previous controversy, questioning what guarantee existed that

Cong govt failed minorities: Harish Says promises made in 'Minority Declaration' were not fulfilled

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): Former Minister T Harish Rao alleged that the Congress government had failed to fulfil the promises made in its Minority Declaration ahead of the 2023 Assembly elections. Addressing a meeting of the Turuka Kasha Community Hakkula Sadhana Samithi in Gajwel on Sunday, Harish Rao said the Congress had promised to increase the allocation for minority welfare to Rs 4,000 crore, against the Rs 1,800 crore released by the BRS government. However, he alleged that the Congress government had spent only Rs 1,300 crore, Rs 500 crore less than the amount released by the previous BRS government. He also alleged that the Turuka Kasha and Minority Corporations were not receiving any funds. Harish Rao said the BRS government had spent Rs 1,550 crore on overseas scholarships for minorities during its tenure. In contrast, he claimed that the Congress government had spent only Rs 14 crore on the scheme over the past three years, which he said showed that the government had neglected Muslim minorities. The State's minority overseas scholarship

BJP slams Congress, AIMIM over electoral claims

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): BJP Telangana State president N Ramchander Rao on Sunday accused Congress leaders of spreading “false information” about constitutional institutions out of fear of electoral defeats. He criticised Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge's remarks describing elections as a farce and demanding their cancellation, saying such statements insult voters and democracy. Rao alleged that Rahul Gandhi and others were attempting to undermine public trust in institutions such as the Supreme Court, the President's Office and the Election Commission of India (ECI). He also rejected Congress allegations over

Sridhar Babu pitches global capability centre hub for Telangana

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): Minister for Information Technology, Electronics, Communications, Industries, Commerce, and Legislative Affairs D Sridhar Babu emphasised that the Telangana government remains committed to expanding physical and digital infrastructure to establish the state as a premier global capability centre hub. Inaugurating the Research, Education and Advancement Conclave 2026 on Saturday, Sridhar Babu praised TGCE Chairman Prof V Balakista Reddy and his team for hosting the pioneering initiative. Sridhar Babu highlighted the urgent necessity of transitioning academic curricula from degree-centric models to skill-centric frameworks, stating that modern graduates require adequate practical skills alongside industry exposure to ensure employability. He sought private sector support to establish incubation centres across all state universities while calling for vibrant collaboration among universities, research bodies, and corporate entities to propel Telangana Rising. Organized by TGCE at Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University

Talasani questions EC procedures

Alleges lakhs of voter names deleted

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): BRSLP deputy leader and Sanath Nagar MLA Talasani Srinivas Yadav on Sunday accused the Election Com-mission of adopting proce-dures that undermine vot-ers' rights and causing confusion in the electoral process. He questioned why voter registration was re-quired afresh before every graduate MLC election. He urged the EC to introduce a system that registers only newly eligible graduates. Addressing a graduate voter registration pro-gramme at Belvardi Garden Apartments in Padmarao Nagar, Srinivas Yadav al-leged that the appoint-mentof Booth Level Officers (BLOs) without adequate tech-nological knowledge or understanding process. He stated that this created confusion during the Special Intensive Revi-sion of electoral rolls, re-sulting in the deletion of lakhs of voters' names. He questioned the ration-ale behind issuing notices to voters whose names were removed and asked whether the EC had no responsibility to protect the constitutional right to vote. He also criticised the Commission for not ade quately utilising the support of the Central and State gov-ernments in conduct-ing voter registration. With graduate MLC elections ap-proaching, the former Min-ister appealed to eligible graduates to enrol them-selves and encourage others to register, stressing that voting preferences were their personal choice. Srinivas Yadav criticised Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy over power and drinking water shortages in the State. He said the Chief Minister retained the mu-nicipal administration, home and education portfo-lios but had failed to ade-quately monitor them. He recalled that former Chief Minister K Chan-drashekhar Rao regularly reviewed drinking water and power supply issues and took corrective meas-ures retained in the Central survey, the OBC column was removed. Highlighting the Congress government's efforts in Telangana, Goud said more than 55 per cent of sarpanches elected in local body polls were from the BC community. He also claimed that the Congress had allocated 58 per cent of seats to BCs in municipal elections. Goud said the time had come for Prime Minister Narendra Modi to step down and expressed confidence that Rahul Gandhi would become the Prime Minister. He announced that the Congress would conduct a nationwide caste survey once it came to power at the Centre and take the process forward. Calling upon BC communities to unite by setting aside caste differences, Goud said there was nothing to lose by fighting for their rights. He stressed the need to continue the struggle for future generations, describing the demand for adequate representation as a just one. He said the BC community must continue the fight until it secured its rightful share and asserted that Chief Minister Revanth Reddy and Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka stood firmly in support of BCs.

BC LEADER will be Telangana CM, asserts Mahesh Goud

Reform electoral system, not just replace CEC: Kavitha

exam paper leaks would stop simply because a minister stepped down while the National Testing Agency remained unchanged. She remarked that demanding the CEC resignation acts merely as a temporary bandage, whereas the permanent solution lies in conducting elections via paper ballots. Warning of intensified action, she affirmed that TRS would join hands with like-minded organizations to agitate for paper ballots, even staging protests in New Delhi if necessary. Furthermore, Kavitha announced that TRS will field candidates in two upcoming graduate constituency elections. Highlighting that polls provide an effective platform to present political agendas, she stated her party would leverage the opportunity to convey its message across approximately 75 assembly segments. Responding to queries regarding the Khairatabad by-election, she noted that uncertainty persists since the case involving Vijaya Reddy remains pending in court, though TRS stands fully prepared to contest whenever elections are announced. Concluding her remarks, Kavitha urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to intervene immediately and extend necessary support to save 60 lakh farming families currently suffering under severe drought conditions across the region.

Venkaiah Naidu stresses cultural roots

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): Former Vice-President of India M Venkaiah Naidu stressed the urgent need to preserve traditional values and cultural roots while ad-dressing a packed literary gathering in Hyderabad. He attended the second edition of 'International Ink Bound 2.0' as the chief guest at Prasad Labs on Sat-urday. Organised by Kas-turi Vijaya Publishers under the leadership of Pa-marthi Sudheer Pamireddy, the event saw the launch of several prominent titles. Venkaiah Naidu launched Dr Praveen Yaj-jala's multilingual book 'Screenplay Master Suku-mar', Vanguri Chitten Raj's 'Avemaina Gnapakala? Marchipovadanika?' and a 48-story anthology titled 'Ammamma Kathala Kha-jana'. Expressing concern that many people are driftingaway from indigenous tra-ditions in pursuit of West-ern trends, Venkaiah Naidu said Indians living abroad often show greater enthusi-asm for local customs. Turning to cinema, he said films must blend entertain-ment with meaningful knowledge and humour, while also maintaining strong language and gram-matical standards. The gathering, attended by well-known personali-ties from various walks of life, including actor-writer Tanikella Bharani and for-mer Rajya Sabha member Yarlagadda Lakshmi Prasad, highlighted the close relationship between literature and cinema. event Tanikella Bharani com-mended the Pamireddy family's steadfast dedica-tion to promoting literary excellence. The brought together writers, artists and readers to cele-brate regional heritage and creative storytelling.

CBI begins probe into Kaleshwaram project?

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): Atleast a year after the Telangana government issued orders requesting the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) to probe the alleged irregularities in the execution and maintenance of the Kaleshwaram Lift Irrigation Project (KLIP), senior officials of the premier investigation agency reportedly conducted a high-level meeting a few days ago in which they discussed the legal ramifications of the PC Ghose inquiry panel report and the agency's future course of action. According to sources, following directions from the CBI headquarters in New Delhi, the CBI officials would go further into the issues involved. Senior officers of CBI held a meeting in New Delhi regarding the issue. The CBI officials have gone through the PC Ghose Committee's inquiry report and the CBI's legal experts also examined its findings and legal implications. On September 1, 2025, the then Special Chief Secretary Ravi Gupta issued orders in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 6 of the Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946 (Central Act XXV of 1946), allowing the CBI to investigate irregularities in the KLIP. In the order, the government also clearly allowed the CBI's establishment in the State of Telangana to conduct investigation into the embezzlement of public funds, and corrupt practices etc. in the matter of construction of Medigadda, Annaram, and Sundilla barrages of the Kaleshwaram Lift Irrigation Project in the State of Telangana against all the accused persons, including public servants and private persons, companies etc., in relaxation of the orders issued in GO Ms. No.51,

Home (Special) Department, dated: August 30, 2022 which restricted CBI investigations in the state. It is said that the legal experts clarified that the Telangana government never mentioned retired Supreme Court Justice PC Ghose com-mission's findings in the gov-ernment order directing the CBI to probe the case of Kaleshwaram irregulari-ties. The experts also closely monitored court proceedings, order copies related to PC Ghose Commission findings and petitions filed before court of law. The CBI senior officials are likely to take a decision soon to comply with the government orders. After the state government issued orders directing the CBI to probe the Kaleshwaram irreg-ularities, a team comprising senior IAS officials from Telangana reportedly pursued it by clearing doubts, clarifi-cations related to project details, irregularities, and legal issues.

Asaduddin warns of massive protests over Form 7 misuse

Hyderabad, Oct04 (Open Frame): HyderabadMP and AIMIM Chief Asaduddin Owaisi on Sunday warned of massive street protests across the state capital over the alleged widespread misuse of Form 7 during the ongoing Special Intensive Revision of electoral rolls in Telangana. Appealing directly to the Election Commission of India,

Owaisi demanded swift legal action against individuals submitting false deletion claims to compromise voter list integrity. Addressing a religious gathering, Owaisi stated that if fraudulent Form 7 applications were being submitted without check, the authorities must hold those responsible accountable. He warned that if this practice does not cease immediately, demonstrations larger than those seen at Delhi Jantar Mantar will erupt across Hyderabad streets, creating severe challenges for administrators while emphasizing that AIMIM will not remain silent.

Cong govt failed minorities: Harish scheme is cur-rently operational, with the government also releasing funds to beneficiaries in September. Rao further alleged that employees of the Minority Corporation and Urdu Academy had not been paid salaries for a year. Elaborating on the devel-opment of Gajwel, Rao said former Chief Minister K Chandrashekhar Rao had transformed the constituency during his 10 years as its MLA. He said the BRS government had built multi-ple reservoirs under the Kaleshwaram Lift Irrigation Scheme. Rao alleged that Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy had failed to lift water from the Godavari this year, forc-ing farmers to suffer. He also listed various development and welfare schemes imple-mented by the BRS govern-ment during its 10-year tenure.

BJP slams Congress, AIMIM over electoral claims

the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) process in Hyderabad, saying voter deletions were carried out only after due verification. He said submitting Form-7 did not automatically result in deletion of names and claimed no BJP Booth Level Agents had submitted such forms. Rao also accused Congress of selectively questioning EVMs and the SIR process after electoral defeats. Meanwhile, BJP spokesperson and media in-charge N V Subhash challenged AIMIM chief Asaduddin Owaisi to produce concrete evidence of electoral wrongdoing before the judiciary instead of making political allegations. Armor MLA Paidi Rakesh Reddy also criticised Owaisi, saying only courts, not jail superintendents, could grant bail.

Sridhar Babu pitches global capability centre hub for Telangana

Hyderabad, REACH 2026 marks a major effort to bridge industry-academia divides, aligning state development goals with national Viksit Bharat 2047 targets. In his welcome address, Prof V Balakista Reddy outlined his vision for higher education and institutional convergence, emphasizing technical expertise for local students. During the event, Sridhar Babu released a book authored by Prof Reddy titled Hyderabad, A Hub of Education Research, Innovation, and Cultural Heritage, detailing the city evolution into a global technology center. Eminent industrialist BV Mohan Reddy, Founder Chairman of Cyient, attended as guest of honour, speaking on regional contributions to national progress. The inaugural session featured Osmania University Vice Chancellor Prof Kumar Molugaram, JNTUH Vice Chancellor Prof T Kishen Kumar Reddy, and TGCHE Vice Chairman Prof E Purushottam. The conclave witnessed active deliberations among public and private university chancellors, industry leaders vote of thanks.

Massive Rally of OBC Leaders Held in Talakondapally

Talakondapally, October 4 (Open Frame): A massive rally organised by OBC leaders and activists of the mandal was held with enthusiasm at the Talakondapally crossroads. MLA Kasireddy Narayana Reddy formally flagged off the rally. A large number of OBC leaders and activists from across the mandal participated in the rally and demonstrated their unity. Mandal-level senior leaders, public representatives, Congress party leaders, activists and members of the Congress family attended the programme in large numbers. The rally created a lively atmosphere in and around the crossroads. The leaders called upon the OBC community to move forward unitedly for their welfare and to secure their rights.

Declare Midjil Mandal as Drought-Affected Mandal Barigela Sudarshan Demands

Midjil, October 04 (Open Frame): BRS mandal former MPP Sudarshan said that farmers in Midjil mandal are facing the prospect of suffering severe losses this year due to deficient rainfall, inadequate inflows into irrigation projects and the failure to provide irrigation water properly through the KLIS canals. He urged officials to conduct a field-level assessment of the situation in the mandal and submit a report to the government recommending that Midjil mandal be declared a drought-affected mandal. Speaking on the occasion, former MPP Sudarshan said that drought-like conditions had prevailed across the state due to the impact of El Niño, resulting in inadequate water inflows into projects, tanks and ponds. At the same time, farmers were not receiving the required irrigation water through the KLIS canals at the crucial time, leading to a situation where the area under cultivation could decline. He said farmers in the mandal depend primarily on agriculture for their livelihood and invest heavily in cultivating crops. However, due to water shortages, crops could be damaged, putting farmers at risk of suffering financial losses. In view of the situation, he urged officials to conduct a comprehensive survey of crop conditions in villages across the mandal. He also demanded that crop losses be scientifically assessed and that a report be submitted to the government to ensure that affected farmers receive crop-loss compensation of Rs. 25,000 per acre directly into their bank accounts. He urged the government to take immediate measures to support farmers and provide them relief from the prevailing drought-like conditions.

Friends Youth Extends Support to Friend's Family

Gurrampodu, October 2 (Open Frame): Friends came together to extend financial assistance to the family of a friend in distress, demonstrating compassion and humanity. Following the recent death of Katta Chandrayya of Pittalagudem village due to illness, members of Friends Youth visited and consoled his family on Sunday. On the occasion, they met the deceased's family members Katta Ramakrishna and Katta Lakshamma and provided financial assistance of Rs. 21,000 to support the family. Friends Youth members assured the family that they would continue to extend their support and assistance whenever required in the future. Katta Yadaiah, Mason; Katta Yadaiah (BSP); Katta Satyanarayana; Katta Harikrishna; Katta Ramesh; Katta Chandramouli; Katta Chiranjeevi; Pulakaram Saidulu; Katta Swamy; Pulakaram Ramulu; Katta Raju; Katta Venkatesh; Katta Lingaswamy; Katta Saidulu; Katta Shankar; Katta Sudheer; Katta Srisailam; Sayam Ramesh; Vanam Latif; Katta Manohar; Katta Mohan and others participated in the programme.

Stop Attacks on Private Doctors Officials Should Verify Facts Before Taking Action

Amanagallu, October 04 (Open Frame): A meeting of private doctors was held in Amanagallu town on Sunday under the aegis of the Kalwakurthy Doctors Association, urging authorities to stop attacks on private doctors. Later, the doctors took out a rally and paid floral tributes to the statue of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar located on the premises of the Mandal Parishad office. Speaking on the occasion, state leader of private hospitals Pathya Naik said that it was not appropriate for officials to conduct raids on private hospitals, make allegations against doctors who have been relying on the medical profession for 40–50 years and serving people with their experience without verifying the facts, or create unnecessary publicity in the name of medicines. He said there was a clear policy regarding the services of doctors who have studied courses such as Ayurveda, Homeopathy, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Unani, Physiotherapy and other disciplines for five to six years in government colleges and obtained degrees. He stated that officials themselves should clarify what kind of medical services those who have studied these courses are permitted to provide. Pathya Naik said that mistakes occurring here and there in any system are natural and that it was not appropriate to attribute the mistake committed by an individual somewhere to the entire medical system. If any mistakes occur, action should be taken against the concerned individuals as per the rules, rather than viewing everyone from the same perspective. He urged officials to examine the actual situation and refrain from acting in a manner that could bring a bad name to the government. He warned that if attacks on private hospitals continue, they would be compelled to bring the issue to the attention of the government. Doctors Swamy, Shekhar, Venkatachari, Prasad, Ramesh, Ramchander, Venkatesh, Parvathalu, Srinivas Gupta, Krishna Naik and others participated in the programme.

Illegal Sand Transportation in Midjil Allegations of Unauthorised Excavation in Kothapalli; Villagers Seek Strict Action

Allegations of Unauthorised Excavation in Kothapalli; Villagers Seek Strict Action

Midjil, October 04 (Open Frame): Allegations of illegal sand excavation and transportation have surfaced in different parts of Midjil mandal, even as police seized three tractors allegedly transporting sand illegally from Dundubi Vagu in the early hours of Sunday. According to Midjil SI Srinivas Yadav, police received credible information that some persons from Velugommula village were illegally transporting sand from Dundubi Vagu at Kothur through tractors. Acting on the information, police conducted night patrols and intercepted three sand-laden tractors while they were heading towards Mallapur. The vehicles were subsequently shifted to the Midjil Police Station. The SI said cases had been registered and an investigation was underway. Police personnel Ramesh, Nagender and others participated in the operation. Meanwhile, allegations of illegal sand excavation and transportation have also been raised in Kothapalli village limits. Villagers allege that sand is being excavated using JCB machines and transported to other areas through tractors. They claim that the transportation is taking place during both daytime and nighttime, allegedly in violation of government regulations. Local residents expressed concern that continued illegal sand excavation and transportation could cause significant loss of government revenue. They further alleged that despite the issue being brought to the attention of the concerned authorities, effective action had not been taken so far. Villagers have urged the authorities to conduct a comprehensive field-level inquiry into the alleged sand excavation and transportation activities in Kothapalli and other affected areas of the mandal. They demanded strict action against those found violating the rules and called for effective measures to prevent unauthorised sand mining and transportation.

Make Kanshi Ram Death Anniversary Meetings a Grand Success

Midjil, October 04 (Open Frame): The Bahujan Students Front–University of Hyderabad has called upon the Bahujan community of Telangana to make the large-scale Bahujan Samaj Party public meetings, scheduled to be held zone-wise across Telangana on October 9, a grand success on the occasion of the 20th death anniversary of Manyavar Kanshi Ram. The organisation urged students, unemployed youth, intellectuals, employees, farmers, workers, women and young people, along with SCs, STs, BCs, minorities, Ambedkarites and followers of the ideologies of Phule and Periyar, to attend the meetings in large numbers. It stated that Kanshi Ram built the Bahujan Samaj Party with the objective of linking the social liberation of oppressed sections with the attainment of political power and ensuring equal rights and representation for Bahujans in the social, economic and political spheres. It said he spread awareness across the country that the vote of Bahujans should be transformed into political power for Bahujans. The organisation stated that Mayawati is continuing the legacy of Kanshi Ram, who carried forward the ideologies of equality and social justice of Jyotirao Phule, Savitribai Phule, Periyar and Babasaheb Ambedkar through political action. It stated that the Bahujan communities, who constitute a majority of the population in Telangana, need to receive political representation, participation in governance and social justice based on their population. It said the time had come to further strengthen political awareness among the Bahujan communities. It expressed the hope that the “Hello Bahujan–Chalo Hyderabad” Bahujan Rajyadhikara Samarabheri meetings, being organised under the leadership of Telangana BSP State President Ibrahim Shekhar, would serve as a platform for strengthening political awareness among Bahujans. The Bahujan Students Front–University of Hyderabad called upon all people of Telangana who seek social justice to attend the meetings scheduled for October 9 in large numbers and demonstrate Bahujan unity.

Gyarmee Sharif Celebrated with Devotion and Religious Fervour

Amanagallu, October 04 (Open Frame): The Gyarmee Sharif celebration was observed with deep devotion and religious fervour by Muslim devotees at the Mahboob Subhani Dargah near Peerla Masjid Colony in Amanagallu town on Sunday. A large number of Muslim and minority leaders and youth from the town participated in the celebrations organised under the aegis of the Anjuman Ghulam-e-Mustafa Committee. As part of the celebrations, a grand procession carrying the holy flag was taken out from the dargah through the town. Later, the flag was ceremonially installed at the dargah, followed by special prayers, Salam and Dua conducted under the guidance of religious scholar Hafiz-e-Maulana Waheed. Following the religious programmes, committee members organised an Annadanam (free food distribution) for the public. Jamia Masjid president Masoom, Jabbar Khaleel, Nayyum Razaq, Qader, and committee members Akram, Baba, Abbas, Azhar Afzal, Arif, Anjat, Ameer, Ghouse, Pasha Ghouse, Asad, Muzammil, Mudassir, Rauf and others were present.

JANHVI'S ODE TO INDIAN TEXTILES

Stylist Rhea Kapoor shares how actress' BoF 500 saree celebrates Muslin Khadi

Fashion stylist Rhea Kapoor has shared details of Janhvi Kapoor's unconven-tional saree look for the BoF 500 gala in Paris. She highlighted the intricate craftsmanship and rich Indian textile heritage behind the en semble. Janhvi attended the prestigious fashion event in an ethereal saree crafted from 460-count Bengal Muslin, a fabric that Rhea described as "woven like air." Sharing details of the en-semble on Instagram, Rhea said Bengal Muslin used for the saree was "Khud-Rang", meaning unbleached, and is also known as Baft-E-Hawa, Shabnami, or Chandani. She described the fabric as "the truest form of luxury" and highlighted that the Muslin Khadi was woven solely in India. The saree was further elevated with ornate sleeves featuring polkis, garnets and emeralds. wears Posting pictures featuring Janhvi, Rhea wrote, "<@>jan-hvikapoor in Paris for the <@>bof @>bof gala <@>pankaj_s heritag heritage Ethe-real 460 count Bengal Muslin which is Khud - Rang aka un-bleached, woven like air, also called Baft EHawa, Shab-nami or Chandani, the truest form of Luxury, Muslin Khadi, woven solely in India. The sleeves are ornate with Polkies, Garnets and Emer-alds amalgamated with Saraafa tassels with Kiran and Resham fringing." Janhvi's appearance at the BoF 500 gala brought together modern fashion and tradi-tional Indian craftsman-ship. She looked stunning in an off-white six-yard ensemble that combined fluid draping with an unexpected cascade of or-nate gold accents, pearls, shells, and tassels.

Yami Gautam urges media not to use AI photos without her consent

National award-winning actress Yami Gautam has urged media to take responsibility and not manipulate her pictures with the help of artificial intelligence. With AI content and altered photos of the stars flooding social media, Yami made a similar appeal in recent times. Taking to X, the actress asked the media to use her pictures that were clicked during her public appearances and insisted that they do not alter a person's image without consent. Yami's appeal comes after the 'Chuttamalle' AI video controversy with Jr NTR and Janhvi Kapoor. The fabricated video using the superstar's image and the popular song from Devara went viral recently. NTR strongly condemned the video's circulation and threatened legal action against those responsible for the AI content. Several actors like Vijay Deverakonda and Chiranjeevi have also spoken out against the misuse of AI-generated content and encouraged taking action against such activities. While the controversy around AI-manipulated videos of celebrities brews, Yami Gautam is busy promoting her upcoming film 'Nayyi Navelli'. The actress is excited to surprise the audience with a different genre as she prepares to launch the film on October 16, coinciding with Dussehra. Based in Meerut, the film follows the Awasthi family as they welcome their new daughter-in-law, Mohini (portrayed by Yami). However, as the narrative unfolds, it takes an unexpected turn, revealing Mohini's mysterious nature. Speaking about the character, Yami mentioned that Mohini is not what she seems to be, saying that he was a mix of friendly and mysterious. Yami described the film as a blend of family drama, comedy, emotions, fantasy, and action. Directed by Balaji, Nayyi Navelli sees Yami Gautam in a special role and is produced by Colour Yellow Productions and Amazon MGM Studios. The actress is confident the audience will enjoy watching Mohini when the film releases in theatres.

Chakkora – Lunar Love Bird: Shiva Nirvana lauds team’s sincerity at pre-release event

Star director Shiva Nirvana appreciated the sincerity and dedication of the team behind the film Chakkora – Lunar Love Bird at the pre-release event in Visakhapatnam. The mass poetry musical love story is all set to release globally on October 9. The film directed by veteran assistant director and debutant director Manga Srinivas stars Sravan and Malaika T. Vasupal in the lead roles. Dr. Chintada Hemarao is producing the film under the banner of High Joy Commercials, with the support of VIP – Vintage Iconic Pictures. Sri Lakshmi Pictures is distributing the film globally. Shiva Nirvana commended the young talents from Vizag and urged them to bring more such innovative films, appreciating the performances, music, cinematography and the sincere efforts put in by the technical crew. He wished the film a great success. Director Manga Srinivas said that Chakkora is a love story between mother and son, friends and lovers set to music. The film also talks about the wait for pure love and about chasing dreams with the tenacity of a Chakkora bird. They have completed the entire shoot in 45 days, said the Director. The DOP Ruppa G Krsna said that the cast and crew had great confidence about the film's entertainment quotient and the message it delivers. The cast and crew were unanimous in saying that the film is an enriching experience for the audience.

‘Least Eligible Bachelor’ trailer promises a fun-filled entertainer

A trailer of Least Eligible Bachelor was released by the makers recently, highlighting a fun-filled entertainer. The movie stars Viva Harsha in the lead role and is directed by Babu Degala. The film is scheduled to premiere on ETV Win on 9th October. The trailer opens up with an interesting comic setup where Harsha's father approaches girls to consider his son as a prospective groom despite Harsha's character not being very interested in love. From there on the promo only moves on to more comedy, quirky situations and entertaining moments. Harsha's comic timing stands out as one of the main attractions while his hyperactive character adds more spice to the narration. Jeevan Kumar, Aishwarya Holakkal and Sravya Chowdary are also part of the story.

Ravi Teja releases Sree Vishnu’s energetic track from ‘Comrade Kalyan’

Mass Maharaja Ravi Teja has released the title track of Telugu movie, Comrade Kalyan starring Sree Vishnu. The song has been garnering good responses on social media ever since its release. Set to the peppy composition by Vijay Bulganin, the track features Sree Vishnu as a fun-filled comrade along with an energetic performance by Rahul Sipligunj. The lyrics, penned by Bhaskarabhatla, depict the light-hearted nature of the protagonist, with the song being in sync with the film's theme. Presented by Kona Venkat and produced by Venkata Krishna Karnati and Seetha Karnati under the Skanda Vahana Motion Pictures LLP banner, Comrade Kalyan is set to release worldwide on 9 th October. Directed by Janakiram Marella, the film combines elements of historical fiction, drama, romance and has been met with positive responses following the glimpse, teaser, and songs' release. The film stars Radhika Sarathkumar, Shine Tom Chacko, and Upendra Limaye alongside Sree Vishnu. Besides composing music, Vijay Bulganin has also scored the track, while Sai Sriram has been the cinematographer and Chota K. Prasad the editor. The team hopes the film's unique blend of drama and romance will strike a chord with viewers.